

Join our team!

We are looking for one research assistant
(40-60h/month, 13.98 - 16.05€ /hour)

Requirements: enrolment in psychology or related subject at UHH, interest in research, fluent English, good communication skills and adaptability

Responsibilities: support data acquisition (fMRI, EEG, ...), coding, project management.

What we offer: learn about cutting-edge cognitive neuroscience research within a supportive, international team environment. We also support the scientific development of all team members.

Learn more: <https://schucklab.gitlab.io/>

Interested?

Reach out to noa.hedrich@uni-hamburg.de or theo.schaefer@uni-hamburg.de.

Please include a short statement (1 page or less) on why you are interested in the position and what relevant experiences you have and a CV.

The Schuck Lab is strongly committed to creating an inclusive work environment by promoting equity and diversity. Our goal is to provide equal opportunities for all - regardless of race, ethnicity and national origin, gender and gender identity, sexuality, class and religion - but not limited to those categories. We therefore actively welcome applications from diverse backgrounds and we value the richness that diversity brings to the scientific community.

